NOTE: Unpaid apprentices and trainees are considered employed in Mexico, but not in the ILO definition of employment. They are therefore categorized as Indistinguishable (900s) in PCLFS and PCMAS. The user should reclassify according to whether they wish them to be employed (100s) or not employed (400s). They remain in the universe of other labor market variables as they are asked the labor market questions.

COMMENT: PIND provides the LIS-standardized format of the NACE (r1.1) equivalent to the Mexican industry code (SCIAN). For some original values, the specific NACE code was not easily determined and broader categories were used. PSLOT1 contains the harmonized SCIAN industry values provided by Mexico.
