Original survey information, Irland 2000

Main objective         The European Household Panel Survey (E European Union under auspices of the Sta involves annual interviewing of a represer range of topics on living conditions. It wai information across the Member States on and many other diverse social indicators c objective of the survey is to provide an up Structure of data source           Frequency         Annual.           Survey year/ Wave         2001 (ECHP Wave 8)           Coverage         All private households in all the national I excluding hospitals, nursing homes, couve are a number of small groups known to fa rivate households – as well as those living           Sampling         The survey is based on two stage sampling - the selection of Irsh District Electoral I - the selection of Irsh District Electoral I - the selection of Irsh District Electoral I - the selection of a small number of house sampling mis was selected, and then the house hypobability of any household varied in fain The criteria for explicit stratification com sampling frame was the Register of Elector Government or European Parliament elect Government or European Parliament elect Government or European Parliament elect Government or European Parliament elect information on non-responal interviewing was definition and control of the sample is the household and grister: it has the function information on non-responal ingress, main for the linkage of households and persons definition and control of the sample is the bouseholds and result of the sample is proceeding year, it collects in earnyle is the origon social assistance, and rental, property and - Personal Questionnaire : through person ypreceding year, it collects in disperson who - the linkage of household.           Definitions         The ESRI adapted the Community ECHP questionnaire is chosen according to the Responsible institution         National level: Economic and Social Responsible institution           Main objective         The European Hono under auspices of the Station of a represent range of topiss on living conditions. It wai information across the Member States on and many other diverse social indicators cobjective of the survey is to provide an up Structure of data source           Panel household survey data.         Prequency           Survey year / Wave         2001 (ECHP Wave 8)           Coverage         Annual.           Survey year / Wave         2001 (ECHP Wave 8)           Coverage         All private households in all the national rivate households in all the national rivate households - as well as those living           Sampling         The survey is based on two stage sampling - the selection of as small number of house sampling units was made in Ireland in a si electors was selected, and then the household probability of any household varied in dir The criteria for explicit stratification com sampling frame was the Register of Elect Government or European Pariament electron or European Pariament electron como sampling was used together with comp sampling frame was records are kept of reasons for non-responding cases, mai for the linkage of households and prosons definition and control of the sample is the household route of the sample is the household for durable, house (debt burden, etc.), sources of household is social assistance, and retal, property and - Personal Questionnaire : it collects in form other variables.           Collection mode         A face-to-face personal interviewing was idet burden, etc.), souresob of household is social assistance, and retal, property and -	nunity Household Panel (ECHP)
European Union under auspices of the Six involves annual interviewing of a repress range of topics on living conditions. It wai information across the Member States on objective of the survey is to provide an up Structure of data source           Prequency         Annual.           Survey year / Wave         2001 (ECHP Wave 8)           Coverage         All private households in all the national excluding hospitals, nursing homes, conve are a number of small groups known to far invate households – as well as those living           Sampling         The survey is based on two stage sampling - the selection of Irish District Electoral I - the selection of annal number of house sampling units was made in Ireland in a 3 electors was selected, and then the house probability of any household varied in dir The criteria for explicit stratification com sampling frame was the Register of Elect Government or European Parlianent elector and the criteria for explicit stratification or mo sampling frame was used together with comp sampling frame was used together with comp information on non-responding cases, mai for the linkage of households and persons definition and control of the sample is the household And egister: it has the function information on non-responding cases, mai for the linkage of households and persons definition and control of the sample is the household and individuals in the samoked (db b burden, ect.), sources of household social assistance, and rental, property and - Personal Questionnaire : through person preceding year, it collects datailed inform other variables. The ESRI adapted the Community ECHP questionnaire was devoted to supplementu- questionnaire was devoted to supplementu- questionnaire was devoted to supplementu- questionnaire was devoted to supplementu- questionnaire variables. The ESRI adapted the Community ECHP questionnaire is	arch Institute [Community level: Eurostat]
Frequency         Annual.           Survey year / Wave         2001 (ECHP Wave 8)           Coverage         All private households in all the national I excluding hospitals, nursing homes, cover are a number of small groups known to far irvate households – as well as those living           Sampling         The survey is based on two stage sampling in the selection of Irish District Electoral I.           - the selection of Irish District Electoral I.         - the selection of Irish District Electoral I.           - the selection of Irish District Electoral I.         - the selection of Irish District Electoral I.           Sample size         2.865 households completed interviews on Collection period         June-December 2001.           Collection mode         A face-to-face personal interviewing was used together with comp information on non-responding cases, nai for the linkage of households and persons definition and control of the sample is the household Register: it has the function in formation on non-responding cases, nai for the linkage of household and persons definition and control of the sample is the household and individuals in the sample is ne household and individuals in the sample is ne problems and possession of durable, housi (deb turden, etc.), sources of household i social assistance, and rental, property and - Personal Questionnaire : it collects detailed inform other variables.           The ESRI adapted the Community ECHP         questionnaire relate to income from agric information on the work and level of edue general situation of the household.           Definitions         Community definition for the purposes / criteria: (1) the sh	ICHP) is a standardised survey conducted in the Member States of the tistical Office of the European Communities (EUROSTAT). The survey tative panel of households and individuals in each country, covering a wide slaunched in response to the increasing demand in the EU for comparable income, work and employment, poverty and social exclusion, housing, health oncerning living conditions of private households and persons. A main -to-date and comparable data source on personal incomes.
Survey year / Wave         2001 (ECHP Wave 8)           Coverage         All private households in all the national textuling hospitals, nursing homes, convare a number of small groups known to far invate households – as well as those living           Sampling         The survey is based on two stage sampling invate households – as well as those living           Sampling procedure         The survey is based on two stage sampling invase made in Ireland in a signifig mits was made in Ireland in a signifig mits was made in Ireland in a signifig frame was the Register of Elector Government or European Parlimanent elect Givernment or European Parlimanent elect Household sand individuals in the sample is the function information on non-responding cases, mai for the linkage of households and individuals in the sample is the households and control of the sample is the households and individuals in the sample is the households and control of the sample is the household as and control of the sample is the household as and control of the sample is the household and control of the basehold is social assistance, and rental, property an - Personal Questionnaire : it collects in forber variables. The ESRI adapted the Community ECHP questionalizer: it collects in formation on the work and level of cluc general situation of the household.           Definitions         Household register: it has the as and elevel to creating yeary is collection as devoted to supplementa questionnaire relate to income from agric information on the work and level of educ general situation of the household.           Definitions         Household regorave and the household.
Coverage       All private households in all the national excluding hospitals, nursing homes, convare a number of small groups known to farivate households – as well as those living         Sampling procedure       The survey is based on two stage sampling in the selection of Irish District Electoral E - the selection of a small number of house sampling units was made in Ireland in a stelectors was selected, and then the household probability of any household varied in dir The criteria for explicit stratification com sampling frame was the Register of Elector Government or European Parliament electors was selected, and then the household scompleted interviews or Collection mode         Collection period       June-December 2001.         Collection mode       A face-to-face personal interviewing was used together with com information on non-response where the intervention. The Community ECHP que - Household Register: it has the function information on non-response where the intervor operational control of the sample is the households and individuals in the sample i linked across waves; records are kept of creasons for non-response where the interv operational control in the SIMP - Household Questionnaire : it collects in problems and possession of durable, house (deb turden, etc.), sources of household.         Definitions       The ESRI adapted the Community ECHP questionnaire : it collects information on the work and level of edu scional assistance, and rental, property and - Personal Questionnaire : it collects information on the schoold.         Definitions       The ESRI adapted the Community ECHP questionarie: etcles the intervor operation of the household.         Definitions       Community definition for the purposes cricial assistance, and rental property a Sampling procedure       The survey is based on two stage sampling <ul> <li>the selection of Irish District Electoral E</li> <li>the selection of a small number of house                  sampling frame was the Register of Elector</li> <li>Government or European Parliament elect</li> <li>Sample size</li> <li>2,865 households completed interviewing was                  interviewing was used together with comp</li> </ul> <li>Collection</li> <li>Collection mode</li> <li>A face-to-face personal interviewing was                  interviewing was used together with comp</li> <li>Description of instruments</li> <li>Eurostat has sought harmonisation of the                  interpretation. The Community ECHP que                  -Household Register: it has the function                  information on non-response where the interv                  operational control of the sample is                  inchage of households and persons                 definition and control of the sample is                  incervention and control of the sample in                  indeproted waves: records are kept of c                  incedarcos waves: records are kept of c                  indeproted Questionnaire: it collects in                  problems and possession of durable, house                        (debt burden, etc.), sources of household is                       social assistance, and rental, property and</li>	erritory (including boarding or lodging houses and army barracks, but nts, monasteries or prisons). Additionally, excluded from the target population ce a high risk of poverty – such as the homeless and travellers not living in p in institutions, whose poverty risk is harder to assess a priori.
- the selection of rish District Electoral E           - the selection of asmall number of house sampling units was made in Ireland in a 31           - The criteria for explicit stratification com sampling frame was the Register of Elect Government or European Parliament elect           Sample size         2,865 households completed interviews of Collection mode           Collection mode         A face-to-face personal interviewing was interviewing was used together with comp           Description of instruments         Eurostat has sought harmonisation of the interpretation. The Community ECHP que - Household Register: it has the function information on non-responing cases, mai for the linkage of households and persons definition and control of the sample is the household and individuals in the sample is the household and individuals in the sample is the household and individuals in the sample is the household across waves; records are kept of C reasons for non-response where the interv operational control in the ECHP.           - Household Questionmaire : it collects in problems and possession of durable, housi (deb burden, etc.), sources of household is social assistance, and rental, property and - Personal Questionmaire : it toollects detailed inform other variables.           The ESRI adapted the Community ECHP questionnaire relate to income from agric information on the work and level of educ general situation of the household.           Definitions           Household head         Community definition: for the purposes of criteria: (1) the sharing of the same dwel uestionnaire is chosen according to the common arranements.           Household head         From Wave 2 owards, the con Collection         June-December 2001.           Collection mode         A face-to-face personal interviewing was used together with comp interviewing was used together with comp Eurostal has sought harmonisation of the origonal interviewing was used together with comp intervention. The Community ECHP que - Household Register: it has the function information on non-responding cases, mai for the linkage of households and persons definition and control of the ECHP.           - Household questionnaire : it collects in problems and possession of durable, housi (debt burden, etc.), sources of household is social assistance, and rental, property and - Personal Questionnaire : it through person preceding year, it collects detailed inform other variables.           The ESRI adapted the Community ECHP questionnaire relate to income from agric information on the work and level of educ general situation of the household.           Definitions         Household for magnet information on the work and level of educ general situation of the household.           Household head         Community definition: for the purposes or criteria: (1) the sharing of the same dwell the household to form part of the household comparability as the member who owns questionnaire is chosen according to the for work, study or sickness.           National definition:         Fread May 2 (and the finition in the purpose of the first preference is for the person who is the stresser.           Household head         From Wave 2 onwards, the concept of the could comparability as the member who owns questionnaire is chosen according to the is a the first preference is for the person who is otherwise, an eligible 'panel' member (member) the istheremetery is chosen according to the is a the stareser	holds at the second stage within each selected PSU; the selection of the ultimate ightly different manner than in other ECHP countries: first, a sample of old of each elector selected taken into the sample; this meant that the selection ext proportion to the number of electors in it. prised the unemployment rate, urban/ural environment and the region. The ors (all adults age 18 and over who are registered to vote in the Dáil, Local ions).
Collection mode         June-December 2001.           Collection mode         A face-to-face personal interviewing was used together with comp meterion of instruments           Eurostat has sought harmonisation of the interpretation. The Community ECHP que - Household Register: it has the function information on non-responding cases, mai for the linkage of households and persons definition and control of the sample is linked across waves; records are kept of c reasons for non-response where the interv operational control in the ECHP. - Household Questionnaire: it collects in problems and possession of durable, housi (debt burden, etc.), sources of household is social assistance, and rental, property and - Personal Questionnaire: it collects in problems and possession of durable, housi (debt burden, etc.), sources of household is social assistance, and rental, property and - Personal Questionnaire: it through person preceding year, it collects detailed inform other variables. The ESRI adapted the Community ECHP questionnaire relate to income from agric information on the work and level of educ general situation of the household.           Definitions         Community definition for the purposes of criteria: (1) the sharing of the same dwell the household to form part of the household comparability as the nember who owns questionnaire is chosen according to the for - the first preference is for the person who - otherwise, an eligible 'panel' member, v eligible' panel' member, v eligible' p	at of 3,662 households that were in the initial sample.
Collection mode       A face-to-face personal interviewing was used together with comp         Description of instruments       Eurostat has sought harmonisation of the interpretation. The Community ECHP que - Household Register: it has the function information on non-responding cases, mail for the linkage of households and persons definition and control of the sample is the households and individuals in the sample is the households and individuals in the sample is the households and individuals in the sample is the household across waves; records are kept of c reasons for non-response where the interv operational control in the ECHP.         - Household Questionnaire : it collects in problems and possession of durable, housing (debt burden, etc.), sources of household is social assistance, and rental, property and - Personal Questionnaire : it torollects information on the work and level of edue general situation of the household.         Definitions         Household       Community definition for the purposes of criteria: (1) the sharing of the same dwell the household to form part of the household comparability as the member who owns questionnaire is chosen according to the for the recorded using a matrix in the household comparability as the member who owns questionnaire is chosen according to the failible 'panel' member (member of the is - at the last resort any elicible 'panel' member, veligible 'panel' member (member, veligible 'panel' member (member, veligible 'panel') member (member, veligible 'panel') member (member, veligible 'panel')         Mon-response error       Household level weights that take into a checks on population structure (demograp users), status: status during the reference period Calendar year 2000.         Mon-response / Imputations are confined to missing inc
interviewing was used together with comp Description of instruments Eurosita has sought harmonisation of the c interpretation. The Community ECHF que - Household Register: it has the function information on non-responding cases, mai for the linkage of households and persons definition and control of the sample is the households and individuals in the sample to linked across waves; records are kept of c reasons for non-response where the interv operational control in the ECHP. - Household Questionnaire : it collects in problems and possession of durable, housi (debt burden, etc.), sources of household is social assistance, and rental, property and - Personal Questionnaire : it through person preceding year, it collects detailed inform other variables. The ESRI adapted the Community ECHP questionnaire relate to income from agricu information on the work and level of educ general situation of the household. Definitions Household Community definition: for the purposes of criteria: (1) the sharing of the same dwell the household to form part of the household. Common arranements. National definition: Ireland followed the common arranements. National definition: Ireland followed the common arranements. National definition: Household head From Wave 2 onwards, the concept of the condent age matrix in the household to comparability as the member who owns questionnaire is chosen according to the f - the first preference is for the person who - otherwise, an eligible 'panel' member, vieligible 'panel' member, vieligible 'panel' member, vieligible 'panel' member (member) the - at the last resert any eligible interviewent Non-resonse error Household level weights that take into ac checks on oppulation structure (demograp Labour market information Eligibility Employment Carrent activity status: status during the reference period rather than a fixed period collection period of the ECHP). Main activity status: status during the reference period calendary ear 2000. Unit of tim	the main mode of data collection; the conventional 'paper and pencil'
the household to form part of the household work, study or sickness.           National definition: Ireland followed the common arraneements.           Household head         From Wave 2 onwards, the concept of h recorded using a matrix in the household comparability as the member who owns questionnaire is chosen according to the f - the first preference is for the person who - otherwise, an eligible 'panel' member (member of the - otherwise, an eligible 'panel' member (member for the j - at the last resort any elicible interviewed both - otherwise, an eligible 'panel' member (member for the j - at the last resort any elicible interviewed both - otherwise, an eligible 'panel' member (member for the j - at the last resort any elicible interviewed both - otherwise, an eligible 'panel' member (member for the j - at the last resort any elicible interviewed both - otherwise, and eligible 'panel' member (member for the j - at the last resort any elicible interviewed both - otherwise, and eligible 'panel' member (member for the j - at the last resort any elicible interviewed both - otherwise, and eligible 'panel' member (member for the j - at the last resort any elicible interviewed both - otherwise, and eligible 'panel' member (member of the checks on population structure (demograp babour market information           Eligibility         Individuals aged 16 and older.           Employment         Current activity status: status during the reference period rather than a fixed period collection period of the ECHP).           Main activity status: according to the mat they presently work for at least 15 hours p unemployed) is determined according to so unemployed) is determined according to so unemployed) is determined according to so unemployed) is dividual, excluding housing allo           Taxes and contributions <td>puestionnaires employed in each country in terms of their structure, content and sistonnaire is composed of three parts: of: controlling and tracing evolution of the sample over time, collecting ntaining records of interviewers' performance, providing critical information over time and also collecting a few basic items of substantive information; basic function of the Household Register; it keeps a record of all addresses, for each wave, and as they are carried over from one wave to the next and hanges in household addresses, of the outcome of all interviewing, and of iewing has not been completed; in the manner the HR is a basic instrument of formation on: changes in household location, housing conditions, amenities, ing tenure, mortgage and rent amounts paid, financial situation of the household ncome and the approximate total net monthly amount, and housing allowance, other income received by the household as whole. all interview with each member aged 16 or over the 31st December of the ation on each person's economic activity and income, and on a large number of questionnaire to the national conditions; moreover, a substantial part of the ry questions of national interest: the principal domains covered by the extended luture, housing, the link between health and employment, biographic ation of the respondent's parents, and some additional information on the of the ECHP, a household is defined at the Community level in terms of two two.</td>	puestionnaires employed in each country in terms of their structure, content and sistonnaire is composed of three parts: of: controlling and tracing evolution of the sample over time, collecting ntaining records of interviewers' performance, providing critical information over time and also collecting a few basic items of substantive information; basic function of the Household Register; it keeps a record of all addresses, for each wave, and as they are carried over from one wave to the next and hanges in household addresses, of the outcome of all interviewing, and of iewing has not been completed; in the manner the HR is a basic instrument of formation on: changes in household location, housing conditions, amenities, ing tenure, mortgage and rent amounts paid, financial situation of the household ncome and the approximate total net monthly amount, and housing allowance, other income received by the household as whole. all interview with each member aged 16 or over the 31st December of the ation on each person's economic activity and income, and on a large number of questionnaire to the national conditions; moreover, a substantial part of the ry questions of national interest: the principal domains covered by the extended luture, housing, the link between health and employment, biographic ation of the respondent's parents, and some additional information on the of the ECHP, a household is defined at the Community level in terms of two two.
Household head       From Wave 2 onwards, the concept of h         recorded using a matrix in the household is       comparability as the member who owns         questionnaire is chosen according to the f       - the first preference is for the person who         - otherwise, an eligible 'panel' member, voltigible interviewed         Data quality aspects       Household response rate was 78%.         Non-response error       Household response rate was 78%.         Item non-response / imputations are confined to missing incom survey.       Household level weights that take into according to the checks on population structure (demograp         Labour market information       Eligibility       Individuals aged 16 and older.         Eligibility       Individuals aged 16 and older.       Employment         Current activity status: status during the reference period rather than a fixed period collection period of the ECHP).       Main activity status: according to the mather presently work for at least 15 hours punction are they presently work for at least 15 hours puncemployed) is determined according to sumemployed) is determined according to sumemployed) is determined according to sumemployed) is dividual, excluding housing allo         Taxes and contributions       Most variables are collected net of taxes a	of the ECHF, a household is defined at the Community level in levins of two ing and (2) the common living arrangements. All the individuals considered by old are taken into account, even if they are temporarily absent for reasons o proposed definition of household in terms of both common accommodation and
Data quality aspects           Non-response error         Household response rate was 78%.           Item non-response / Imputations are confined to missing inconsing incon	responded to the household interview of the preceding round; with priority in the following order: the RP; the RP's spouse or partner, another nitial sample);
Item non-response /         Imputations are confined to missing incomsimputation           Weighting         Household level weights that take into acchecks on population structure (demograp           Labour market information         Individuals aged 16 and older.           Eligibility         Individuals aged 16 and older.           Employment         Current activity status: status during the reference period rather than a fixed period collection period of the ECHP).           Main activity status:         according to the mathematical between the presently work for at least 15 hours puncemployed) is determined according to set mathematical between the mathematical between themathematical between thematical between thematical imputation         survey.           Weighting         Household level weights that take into ac checks on population structure (demograp           Labour market information         Eligibility           Engloyment         Individuals aged 16 and older.           Employment         Current activity status : status during the reference period of the ECHP).           Main activity status: according to the ma they presently work for at least 15 hours p unemployed) is determined according to s           Income         Reference period           Reference period         Calendar year 2000.           Unit of time         Mostly monthly income together with nun Unit of collection           Mostly individual, excluding housing allo         Taxes and contributions	a components and are done centrally by Director, have one not is dirich in the
Checks on population structure (demograp           Labour market information           Eligibility         Individuals aged 16 and older.           Employment         Current activity status: status during the reference period rather than a fixed perior collection period of the ECHP).           Main activity status: according to the mather they presently work for at least 15 hours purposed work for at least 15 hours purposed by the period they presently work for at least 15 hours purposed by the period of the contributions           Income         Reference period           Calendar year 2000.         Unit of time           Mostly monthly income together with nun Unit of collection         Mostly individual, excluding hours allo           Taxes and contributions         Most variables are collected net of taxes a	the components and are done centrally by Eurostat, hence are not included in this Eligibility         Individuals aged 16 and older.           Employment         Current activity status : status during the reference period rather than a fixed perior collection period of the ECHP).           Main activity status: according to the mather they presently work for at least 15 hours puremployed) is determined according to status according to the mather they period.           Income         Reference period           Calendar year 2000.         Unit of time           Mostly monthly income together with nun Unit of collection         Mostly monthly accuding housing allows that a collected net of taxes a state state collected net of taxes and contributions	count: (1) adjustment for sample attrition (from Wave 2 onwards); (2) externa hic/socio-economic/social welfare); (3) inflating to the population size.
Employment         Current activity status : status during the reference period rather than a fixed period collection period of the ECHP).           Main activity status: according to the mathey presently work for at least 15 hours punemployed) is determined according to to summinous period           Income           Reference period         Calendar year 2000.           Unit of time         Mostly monthly income together with num Unit of collection           Masty individual, excluding housing allo         Taxes and contributions reference period rather than a fixed period collection period of the ECHP). Main activity status: according to the ma they presently work for at least 15 hours p unemployed) is determined according to s Income Reference period Calendar year 2000. Unit of time Mostly monthly income together with nun Unit of collection Mostly individual, excluding housing allo Taxes and contributions Most variables are collected net of taxes a	reference week, i.e the 7 (full) days preceding the interview (a moving Reference period         Calendar year 2000.           Unit of time         Mostly monthly income together with nun Unit of collection           Mostly individual, excluding housing allo           Taxes and contributions         Most variables are collected net of taxes a	reference week, i.e the / (full) days preceding the interview (a moving in terms of specific calendar dates is used because of the extended data in activity concept, persons are classified as being in job or self-employment if ser week; for the remaining, the main status (including the status of being elf-declaration, in principle on the basis of the most time spent.
Unit of time         Mostly monthly income together with nun           Unit of collection         Mostly individual, excluding housing allo           Taxes and contributions         Most variables are collected net of taxes a
Taxes and contributions Most variables are collected net of taxes a	aber of months received during reference year; some yearly income.
	wances, social assistance, rental income and inheritance/lottery winning.
which are also conjected gross).	and contributions (with the exception of self-employment earnings, and wages,
Restrictions
Additional remarks
Source: Data provider.	